Print Networks

Print Networks

Where:

Hardiman Building
Moore Institute
National University of Ireland
Galway

When:

11 - 12 July 2016

British & Irish Print Networks

The 19th Print Networks conference has as its theme 'British and Irish Print Networks'. In the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries, Ireland became increasingly integrated within a British economic and political space. Speakers will address the dynamics of the relationship between the print trade in Ireland and its counterparts to England, Scotland and Wales.

Keynote Speakers

Charles Benson (Trinity College Dublin)
'Ever Closer Union: Evidence of the Integration of the Booktrades in Ireland and Britain After 1801.'

Tom Mole (University of Edinburgh)
'Scattered Odes in Shattered Books: Victorian Anthologies as Data.'

Full Conference
€80.00 (Student €40.00)

Day Tickets
€50.00 (Student €25.00)

Programme & Registration
www.bookhistory.org.uk/print-networks/events

Further Information:
printnetworks2016@gmail.com

NUI Galway
OÉ Gaillimh

MI Moore Institute